

A wonderful way to contribute to the Christ Cares for Princeton is making a pledge through your employer's giving programs. Often times employers will match 50% or larger what you pledge. Contact your employer to see what you can do to add Christ Cares for Princeton to your employer's annual charity drives. We can provide your employer with all the information required. It's just one more way you can help feed Princeton's hungry.